TODAY'S MEETING

Despite the postal strike Scottish Motor Racing Club received over 100 entries for today's meeting, the penultimate round in all the Scottish motor racing championships which shows that the competitors are keen to compete.

The meeting sees the racing come-back of Walter Robertson, one of the directors of the circuit and former Donington GT Champion. Walter, who last drove the Ecurie Ecosse Opel Manta over a year ago, has been offered a car closer to his heart, the big 440 bhp Lotus Esprit, normally campaigned by Ron Cumming under the Simpson Motors/Claymore Shellfish banner. Cumming himself will be driving his newest acquisition at the meeting, the AC 3000 originally built by Andy Barton, the northern racing driver, and powered by a BMW Formula 2 engine. The car was later raced in Scotland and the south by Bill Paul from Helensburgh but Bill stopped racing at the end of 1986. Ron Cumming bought the car recently and it will be interesting to see how it compares to the big V6-engined Esprit he normally drives.

The main championship interest rests in the battle for supremacy in the MacAndrews for Citroën FF1600 class. For Cameron Binnie, the reigning Champion with his Sony Centres Van Diemen the last meeting at Ingliston proved crucial as he broke a drive shaft on the grid. This gives a greater advantage to Colin Harper from Aberdeen with his Van Diemen to wrest the Championship from the Border farmer.

In the Road Saloon car classes there are a larger number of over 1600cc saloons than usual led by Alaster Cunningham's Opel Manta and the class will be enlivened by the entry of Hamish Irvine with a VW Scirocco GTi. Irvine knows his way round Ingliston and the Scirocco should have an advantage in its size. Those two cars, of course, take part in the first race of the day though at the time of writing entries will still be coming in and so it may be split into two races for up to and over 1600 ccs.

In the up to 1600cc class there will be the usual Fiesta battle with Lindsay Mann's Avenger likely to be up with them.

The Clubmans and Sports Car race which is second comes at a time when it is fairly certain that Andy Smith has won the Lowland Tyres & Exhausts Championship in his B Class car which has virtually been unbeaten this season. John Fyda has his fingers crossed that he will make the grid this time.

The Town & Country Car Rentals GT class is still very much in the melting pot and as mentioned earlier Walter Robertson will be outwith the Esprit and Bob Jamieson with the Novafone Davrian. James Mackay is back again with his Davrian Mark 8 and he should be well placed but all eyes will be on Kenny Coleman and Ian Forrest for the 1000cc class. Eastern Photocolour, who are one of Stewart Roden's sponsors, are sponsoring this race which means that Stewart will be out to show who is boss in Britain's No.1 for choice.

Tariffs are available at the rear of the grandstand, on the minibus.

Hugh McCaig with the Ecurie Ecosse Tojeiro.

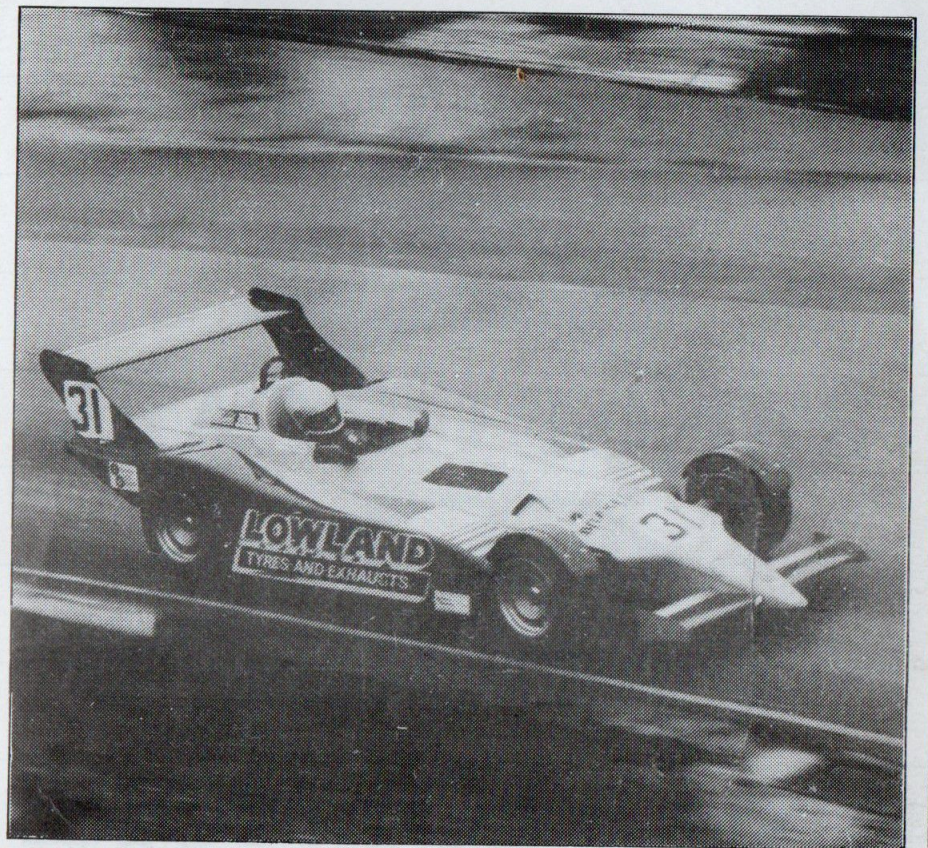

FF2000. He has taken time to adjust to the Swift he changed to during the season but now has everything going well and could give Harvey Gillanders a closer run for his money in the Claymore Shellfish/Reco's Disco Swift which has already won the Silverscreen Championship. Dark horse as usual is Robert Thomson who has to have a win some time this season.

Road Sports Cars have rarely been more competitive than this season and with John Peace back in the frame after the harvest he will add to the challenge at the front though watch out for Allan McGregor's Restore-a-Stone Caterham 7.

The Lothian Chemical Company Historic Handicap sees a similar field to the September 5th meeting and Hugh McCaig is out to try harder to win the Ecurie Ecosse Tojeiro Buick.

In the Modified Sports and Saloons event which counts in the Sportstune Scottish Championship there is an interesting mixture of cars but again Ian Forrest has to be the favourite with his Davrian and he could even clinch the Championship in this race. Finally, the closest run Championship of the year the MacAndrews for Citroën FF1600 Senior event with Cameron Binnie in the Sony Centre/Silverscreen Van Diemen RF86 and Colin Harper in his Knockhill-supported Van Diemen battling it out in a head-to-head finish. Now that he has been confirmed as Tom Brown's Junior Champion, Louis Di Resta is out to try and finish third in the major Championship this debut FF1600 season.

Don't forget our final meeting of the year at Ingliston on October 16th.
